

CEO

Executive Workstations

From the very beginning, CEO has sought to provide executives with a total solution for the modern office environment. With a firm grasp of the latest market trends, CEO's international team of award winning designers leverage on robust R&D to develop highly innovative, tasteful products.

Guided by the principle of pragmatic innovation, CEO combines precise engineering with exquisite crafting to create furniture systems that are both fashionable and practical. Natural straight grain oak veneer provides a classy aesthetic while the socket area adopts a movable cover plate that neatly hides cables from sight.
